

Johanna Nelson, CEcD

Johanna is currently the Strategic Program Development Coordinator for EDD. She has worked in economic development for over a decade specializing in development finance and entrepreneurial support. She is a Certified Economic Developer through the International Economic Development Council and just finished a fellowship with the Council of Development Finance Authorities. She currently operates a small business in her spare time. She holds an MBA in Organizational Development and a Bachelor's of Science in Industrial Technology and Design.