

Jerry Schalow

P: 505.504.4991 C: 505.999.1831 E: jerry@rrrcc.org

Jerry Schalow is the President/CEO of the Rio Rancho Regional Chamber of Commerce since 2016 and has over three decades of experience in owning, collaborating, and consulting with businesses and consumers. He has led successful organizations throughout the southwest from California to Texas.

Prior to joining the Chamber, Jerry was the President of First Santa Fe Insurance Services, President of Native American Insurance Group. Jerry was a successful long-time leader of HSBC North America and directed a large team that provided financial services in New Mexico, Arizona, California, and Texas. Jerry is also a graduate of Texas Tech University and is married with three kids.

Jerry is the former board chairman for Workforce Connections of Central New Mexico, Co-chair for NMPED's Career Technical Education region representing Central New Mexico, treasurer for New Mexico Connections Academy, which was the first virtual school in New Mexico, Executive Director for the Rio Rancho Community Foundation, Executive Director for Leadership Sandoval and is active on several organizations benefitting our community and leading our community.